

PETER LUNDGREEN

FOUNDING CEO, LUNDGREEN'S CAPITAL

Peter is a sought-after speaker and panellist for major finance conferences around the globe. His most recent speaking engagements include Invested.dk 2020, Rotary Club Copenhagen 2020, Trading Show Europe 2019, Fixed Income Leaders Barcelona 2019, Heureka Founders Conference Berlin 2019, Rotary Club Copenhagen 2019, Accounting and Finance Show Singapore 2018, FX Trading Network New York 2016, Trade Tech Miami 2016, Investordag Denmark 2016, Trade Tech London 2015, and Börsentag Hamburg 2015.

Aside from speaking engagements, Peter also appears in various media outfits around the world including a regular weekly article in CEOWorld Magazine USA, Jyllands-Posten Denmark, The Manila Times Philippines, weekly podcast in Money FM 89.3 Singapore, and ad hoc appearances in Der Spiegel Germany, CNN, Bloomberg, Channel NewsAsia Singapore, Caixin Online China, ANC Philippines, Malaya Business Insight Philippines, BusinessMirror Philippines, TV DR1, TV DR2, TV2, TV2 News, Russia Today, Børsen TV, Radio24Syv, Radio DR2, Radio DR3, News Lens International Taiwan, and Asia Finance Hong Kong.

Lundgreen's Capital, Copenhagen / Asia

December 2009 – present.

Peter Lundgreen is the founder and CEO of Lundgreen's Capital. The company is regulated by the Danish financial authority "Finanstilsynet" (similar to the FSA in the U.K.) and has a license to offer professional investment advice and risk management consulting within the European Union.

The client segments are corporations, municipalities, funds, and trusts.

China is one of the focuses of Lundgreen's Capital. The company has its own economic research unit in Hong Kong, and Peter Lundgreen has established good connections in China. Lundgreen's Capital is therefore also in the position to offer advice and knowledge about the Chinese economy, financial markets, politics and the likes.

Based on a solid 30-year experience on international financial markets, Peter Lundgreen has weekly appearances in the media, covering the financial markets and China. Peter Lundgreen features regularly and prominently in the Danish media landscape and in leading international newspapers and TV channels.

Havnegade 39, DK – 1058 Copenhagen K, Denmark

Telephone +45 70 26 88 55 VAT. Nr. DK 30 73 72 45

Lundgreen's Capital publishes a widely read 28-page quarterly magazine about the global financial markets. The firm additionally issues a weekly newsletter and occasional compact comments on China.

Based on his profound insight about the global financial markets and his China experience, Peter Lundgreen is an increasingly popular speaker at various conferences.

Danske Markets / Danske Bank, Copenhagen

February 2005 – November 2009

At Danske Markets, (the investment banking division of Danske Bank) Peter Lundgreen was responsible for the advisory of corporations and asset managers outside Scandinavia concerning foreign exchange and interest rate risks. This included the building and re-branding of businesses, teams, taking active part in generating income and developing strategic advisory to clients with complex financial risk structures.

Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein, Frankfurt am Main

December 1996 – January 2005

In cooperation with a German colleague, Peter Lundgreen was heading a team, offering financial risk advisory to all kinds of large companies and some asset managers throughout most of Europe. The senior position included the continuous development of employees, products, clients, business concepts and plans in an extremely ambitious environment. representing revenue expectations matching top-tier investment banks. Peter Lundgreen was as well a part of the global management team for DrKW's foreign exchange sales.

Landesbank Hessen Thüringen ("Helaba"), Frankfurt am Main

August 1994 – November 1996

His post as a senior member in a multiproduct financial sales team had the focus on Benelux and Nordic based clients. The client segments mainly consisted of large corporations, central banks and government backed financial institutions. At the time Helaba obtained an AAA rating and was one of Europe's largest addresses for foreign exchange trading.

Spar Nord Bank, Aalborg

August 1991 – July 1994

Peter Lundgreen was responsible for the financial risk advisory of larger Danish companies. Simultaneously he was project manager for the development, implementing and subsequent management of a debt portfolio system for clients of the bank.

Smaller banks, Denmark

August 1986 – July 1991, Denmark

Havnegade 39, DK – 1058 Copenhagen K, Denmark

Telephone +45 70 26 88 55 VAT. Nr. DK 30 73 72 45

Regular education in banking and employment in two smaller Danish banks within foreign exchange trading and sales.

Havnegade 39, DK – 1058 Copenhagen K, Denmark

Telephone +45 70 26 88 55 VAT. Nr. DK 30 73 72 45